Goal 1: Empowering parents / families	Greenfield community wellness fair—April 28	Lauren, Dan, and Mark attend. About 70 tables provided resources. Several people connected with personal stories about addiction, specifically with Dan. Volition provided literature about underage drinking and prescription medications.	Mark
	Franklin rec department youth soccer games table, May 5	Dan volunteered to distribute education about how to talk to kids about underage drinking. Was a little difficult to connect with families because the fields were spread apart vs inside actives, like the basketball games.	Lauren
	Table at growing up digital presentations FHS, May 8	Put on by the FPD and FPS. It was a rescheduled event, so attendance was low. The event targeted parents. We gave about 10 surveys to parents and provided information about underage drinking, vaping, and prescription drugs.	Lauren
	South wood glen spring carnival, May 18th	Lauren, Mark attended. 300 elementary school kids played plinko – kid had to answer if a statement was a characteristic of a good friend vs bad friend before playing the game. Parents commented that they appreciated a good moral lesson with the game.	Lauren and Mark
	Innovative fitness membership appreciation event, June 3	Provided information about our group and education materials. This was a fundraising event for our group, through vendor fees, penny wars, and cousins subs donation day. About 100 people attended the event.	Julianna

Goal 3: Implementing best practices for targeting Volition Franklin priorities	Prevention week	Over 500 people participate in writing a puzzle piece about how they contribute to a happy healthy franklin. Pieces were left at the library for participation and display.	Lauren
	Providing information and enhancing skills during NPW at high school and middle school lunch	Volition Youth had tables during lunch to complete a puzzle piece and had a display board for a week after the event.	Lauren and Julianna
	Providing information during the month of high school graduation, parents who host, parks commission approval	Judy and Janet put a message into the graduation bulletin for parents to read when waiting for graduation to start. Yard signs were placed in parks, schools, churches, and local businesses. Students did a sticker shock campaign at local convent store on alcohol boxes. PSA was created with Gary Wallace for website and facebook.	Mark and Lauren

	Safe server alcohol training	Volition became certified so we could offer this. The trainer canceled the training this year. We will be doing data collection the civic celebration instead.
	PEERS training	Mark organized the Peers with Purpose program. This peer-to-peer, evidence-based program, teaches alcohol and tobacco prevention messages to 8th grade students. High school students were trained, and students presented the material to all the 8th grade classrooms. Students would like to include more about vaping in the future. Fred mentioned that he has seen recorded numbers of citations from students vaping on school grounds. Mike gave insight about current trends in vaping.	Mark
	6th grade camp	Volunteers taught a decision making lesson to 6th grade students at camp. The focus was on friendship and making good decisions when faced with various choices.	Lauren and Julianna
