Action Plan	Progress Report/Meeting Minutes
Welcome/ Introduction	The Executive Board was not able to attend for various reasons. Dan Murray announced that after many years in Franklin, he and his wife will be moving to Pewaukee. This will be his last meeting.
Announcements	Police Department Updates	Office Jon Czerwinski reported a snapshot of tickets given for underage drinking and vaping incidents at the Franklin High School. There were also 15 OWI arrests in February alone. This will be something to explore further moving forward.	Office Czerwinski (Via Julianna)
	Sticker Shock Campaign	Youth created a new saying for their Sticker Shock campaign this year. Members voted on the three options, the second option won: "If they can't buy it, don't supply it." They are also trying to get the campaign into larger	Julianna stores, like Target for the sticker shock campaign.

	Greendale Community Wellness Event	Volition was represented at the event. Volunteers spoke with around 20 people about Volition and upcoming coalition events.	Carrie, Dan
	5K Partnership Update	Volition is partnering with Operation Fit Franklin for the 5k this year on May 4, 2019. If they do not have 75 people registered by the end of next week, they will have to cancel. Volunteer sign-up passed around.	Julianna
	Outdoor Movie Night Vote	The community vote was completed; Mary Poppins Returns was the winner. Volunteer opportunities before and during the event, sign-up sheet passed around.	Julianna
Other Items/Topics	Membership Survey	Membership survey was passed around to fill out during the meeting. They were handed back in at the end of the meeting	Julianna
Guest Speaker	Julia Sherman, WI Alcohol Policy Project	Julia Sherman spoke about the Wisconsin Alcohol Policy Project and different environmental factors that contribute to an alcohol environment. Julia opened the floor for questions and facilitated a discussion.	Julia Sherman
